NET ASSET VALUE PER SHARE

For all the QUAM Sub-Funds, the net asset value of the shares is calculated on each business day in Luxembourg.

For the Sub-Fund EDMOND DE ROTHSCHILD FUND - CHINA, the net asset value of the shares is calculated on each day on which banks are generally open for business in Luxembourg and in France and any other day on which the French and the Chinese financial markets are open (official calendar of Euronext Paris S.A. and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange) is a Valuation Day.

For the Sub-Funds EDMOND DE ROTHSCHILD FUND - BIG DATA and EDMOND DE ROTHSCHILD FUND - US VALUE the net asset value of the shares is calculated on each day on which banks are generally open for business in Luxembourg, in France and any other day on which the French and the American financial markets are open (official calendar of NYSE and Euronext Paris S.A.) is a Valuation Day.

For the Sub-Fund EDMOND DE ROTHSCHILD FUND - GLOBAL CONVERTIBLES the net asset value of the shares is calculated on each day on which banks are generally open for business in Luxembourg, the United States and in France and any other day on which the French and the American financial markets are open (official calendar of NYSE and Euronext Paris S.A.) is a Valuation Day.

For the Sub-Fund EDMOND DE ROTHSCHILD FUND - ASEAN EQUITY, the net asset value is calculated on each day on which banks are generally open for business in Luxembourg and in France and any other day on which the French financial markets and Hong Kong financial markets are open (official calendar of Euronext Paris S.A. and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange) is a Valuation Day.

For all other Sub-Funds the net asset value of the shares is calculated on each day on which banks are generally open for business in Luxembourg and in France and any other day on which the French financial markets are open (official calendar of Euronext Paris S.A.) is a Valuation Day.

For all Sub-Funds, the Net Asset Value:

- is not calculated on Good Friday or December 24 (Christmas Eve)
- is calculated and published on the first Business Day following the relevant Valuation Day (the "NAV calculation day").

In establishing the audited annual report and the unaudited semi-annual report, the Company will, for each Sub-Fund, carry out an additional valuation of its securities' portfolio by using for this purpose the closing prices of the same day. As such and if necessary, at the closing date of the Financial Year and the semester, the Company will carry out two determinations of the Net Asset Value of the Sub-Funds concerned, one based on the principle of the securities' portfolio valued at the last available rates at the moment of the determination of the price applicable to subscriptions, redemptions and conversions processed on this date, and the other based on the principle of the securities' portfolio valued at the closing prices of the same day and intended to be published in the annual revised report and in the non-revised semi-annual report.

If the September 30 and/or the March 31 are not bank working days in Luxembourg, a net asset value per share will be calculated for each Sub-Fund on the base of the last closing prices at the same day.

RISK MANAGEMENT

The method used for the determination of the global exposure is the commitment approach for all Sub-Funds except for the Sub-Funds Emerging Bonds, Bond Allocation and Emerging Sovereign for which the absolute VaR approach is applied.

The Sub-Funds' VaR may not exceed 20% of the Sub-Funds' net assets value as defined by the Law and in the prospectus. The calculation method for the leverage is the sum of the notional of all the derivatives, including the derivatives used for hedging purposes.

The Prospectus dated March 2023 disclosed the levels of expected leverage that are the following:

- Emerging Bonds:
  - Sum of the notional: 500% of the net asset value of the Sub-Fund
- Bond Allocation:
  - Sum of the notional: 2,000% of the net asset value of the Sub-Fund
- Emerging Sovereign:
  - Sum of the notional: 500% of the net asset value of the Sub-Fund

However, under certain circumstances the level of leverage might exceed the aforementioned level.

MARKET COMMENT (31/03/2022–31/03/2023)

In order to avoid a severe recession and long-term supply disruptions in 2020, a massive fiscal response supported by an exceptionally accommodative monetary policy resulted in an abrupt return in 2022 to levels of inflation not seen since the early 1980s. In this volatile context, the consumer price index peaked at 9.1% YoY in the US and at 10.7% in the eurozone during the period. The stalemate in the Russia-Ukraine conflict, which created a devastating human crisis, led to significant market turmoil, exacerbating the inflationary shocks. Commodity prices were affected across the board, with the oil price (WTI) hitting a high of US$115 at the start of the period. In line with the monetary tightening initiated at the start of the return of war to the European continent, the central banks, following the lead of the Federal Reserve, implemented sharp hikes in key interest rates in order to curb inflation. The Fed and the ECB therefore continued to raise their key rates at a historical pace. US and German 10-year yields were thus significantly impacted by these increases, and reached highs of 4.25% and 2.75% respectively over the period.

In line with the start of 2022, financial markets worldwide and the main asset classes all suffered significant losses initially. The sharp rise in bond yields continued to negatively impact long-term assets such as equities. China, faced with a new rise in Covid cases, adopted a strict health policy that caused an abrupt slowdown in its economic activity. The MSCI All Country World Index, for example, continued the trajectory to close 2022 down -10.1% compared with the start of the period. Meanwhile, the NASDAQ, made up of long-duration US tech stocks, slumped by nearly 26%. Over this latter time period, high-yield securities went against the trend of recent years by clearly outperforming growth stocks, developing in the direction of a style rotation. Credit spreads continued to widen in a context of intense volatility. The Markit iTraxx Europe Crossover (credit spread of European high-yield companies) widened by 400 basis points over the period, to end at 650 points. On the forex market, the US dollar continued to strengthen, and even broke through euro parity in the last few months of 2022.

However, the main negative factors that affected the market over the first six months of the period started to lose their impact in the last quarter of 2022, thanks to macroeconomic data that remained very resilient. The reopening of the Chinese economy following the easing of its zero-Covid policy, the surprising resilience of US demand and the faster-than-expected adjustment of Europe to higher energy costs, combined with higher consumption than anticipated, encouraged a return to investor optimism. These factors together fuelled a significant increase in the appetite for risk assets and allowed volatility to stabilise. Global indices rebounded sharply at the start of 2023, with the NASDAQ posting its best monthly performance in January (+10.7%) since 2001 and the MSCI ACWI gaining more than 6.7% over the month. The reporting season amplified this trend, thanks to particularly encouraging results showing considerable resilience. On the basis of this solid economic data, forecasts of terminal rates were respectively revised down for both the FED and the ECB, with markets even positioning for a possible new monetary policy pivot during the course of 2023. More recently, these optimistic prospects were countered by major difficulties in the banking sector, reviving fears on the financial markets. The pressure on the banking system in March thus triggered a return to intense volatility following the preceding period of calm. The upward momentum was halted, penalised by the failure of three regional banks in the US and the ensuing problems of Crédit Suisse in Europe. Volatility rose sharply, while interest rate expectations were largely influenced by the events, with the ECB suggesting that further rate hikes were necessary, albeit at a slower pace. The solidity of the structural base of the European banking sector and reassuring public announcements nevertheless stabilised the sector in Europe at the end of the period, notably easing concerns over systemic risk.

The persistence of solid macroeconomic data, along with the recent events in the banking sector, revived expectations of a recession in the United States and in Europe during the course of 2023. Disinflation, as perceived by the markets, will nevertheless not necessarily pursue a straightforward course. In the United States, the credit tightening is starting to be felt. The central bank's arsenal remains solid, but the prospect of a transition towards a period of limited recession now seems likelier. In the light of this new information, the markets revised down their interest rate expectations in the US and Europe at the end of the period. They now anticipated terminal rates of approximately 3.75% in Europe and 5% in the US. On the forex market, the US dollar continued to weaken, a trend that had started at the end of 2022, mainly due to the diverging interest rate forecasts between the Fed and the ECB. On the other hand, emerging markets benefited considerably from the return of China onto the world stage following its reopening, thus boosting demand.

1. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Europe Convertibles

Over the period from March 31, 2022 to March 31, 2023, the Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Europe Convertibles Sub-fund posted a performance of Class I EUR -3.64% versus -3.29% for its benchmark, the Refinitiv Europe Focus Hedged CBI in Euro.

During the first six months, the markets were marked by high inflation, a rise in interest rates in both dollars and euros, a credit crunch and a fall in the equity markets with a return of volatility. During this period, the asset class suffered from the triple correlation between rates, credit and equities. The Europe Convertible Sub-fund slightly underperformed its index.

Nevertheless, the asset class was able to benefit from the rebound of the equity market in the second half of the year with a rebound of more than 10% of the Sub-fund outperforming its benchmark.

The management team took advantage of specific situations such as the buyback of the Edmond de Rothschild Fund convertible. 0% 2024.

In this volatile environment, the primary market in Europe remained relatively quiet with just under 5 billion issues in 2022 compared to 16 billion in 2021. However, the outlook for issuance in 2023 should be more favorable.

2. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Global Convertibles

Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Global Convertibles signed a return of -9.46% on the institutional share (class I EUR between the 31/03/2022 and the 31/03/2023 while its benchmark (Refinitiv Global Focus Hedged) printed a return of -9.94%.

No asset class was spared from the general market correction in 2022, sparked by rising interest rates at the fastest rates in decades. Global convertibles performance was close to that of equity indices such as MSCI World or bond indices such as US IG corporate bonds.

It is important to explain this performance by the risk factors: the year was atypical, global convertibles suffered simultaneously from a quadruple correlation: equity, credit, rates and valuation, which created a market dislocation. This market dislocation is also a source of opportunities. After this market dislocation, the asset class is more attractive as offers a rate and credit carry with still a low duration.

EDMOND DE ROTHSCHILD FUND

In addition to equity stress, convertible bonds faced credit stress as well in 2022, particularly in the first half. In the first half of the year, convertibles bonds downside support suffered as rapidly rising interest rates and widening credit spreads weighed on bond values, and resulted in a breakdown of their main characteristic, the asymmetric returns.

However, as credit spreads stabilized in the second half of the year, convertible bonds valuation found support, allowing the Sub-fund to improve its convexity relative to the equity market.

In terms of sector performance, in this period, energy was by far the best performing sector, followed by utilities and materials-a reflection of the strength in commodities in the inflation-driven market. However, the weights of these sectors in the convertibles bond space are quite limited, resulting on a minimal impact on top-line returns.

In contrast, consumer discretionary, media, and tech (the sector most represented in global convertible bonds) make up nearly half of the market, and as a result, they dragged significantly on performance.

In the context of high rate volatility, credit and equity market correction, the primary market slowed down significantly. At year-end total global issuance was $40bn, the weakest year on record for global convertibles.

3. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Crossover Credit

EUR I class

The period under review can be divided into two distinct sub-periods. From April to mid-October, central banks worldwide were caught short by the acceleration in inflationary pressure. In reaction, they adopted more restrictive monetary policies by rapidly raising their interest rates and signalling their intention to reduce their balance sheets.

Interest rate curves rose and steepened as a result. By way of example, over the period the 10-year US Treasury rate increased from 2.42% to 4.24% and the 2-year rate from 2.41% to 4.61%.

With this historically rapid rate hike cycle, credit spreads widened sharply to reflect the fears of a hard landing of the global economy. US investment grade spreads increased from 136 bps to 186 bps for JP Morgan's JULI index. The annual yield of this index rose from 3.89% to 6.28%, causing heavy losses in bond portfolios.

In the second part of the year, the macroeconomic outlook improved. Consumption in the United States and Europe proved to be resilient in a context of high inflation. Furthermore, the favourable weather conditions made it possible to avoid energy rationing, which would have greatly penalised industry, particularly in Europe. Credit spreads thus narrowed and interest rates dropped. Against this backdrop the Sub-fund recovered nearly 55% of its negative performance in mid-October.

Over the observation period the Sub-fund recorded a performance of -5.54% versus -5.67% for its composite benchmark.

4. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Emerging Bonds

From March 31st, 2022 to April 1st, 2023, the Sub-fund posted a net Sub-fund performance of -18.1% (EUR hedged I Share class) versus the J.P. Morgan's EMBI Global's -8.9% (EUR Hedged).

Last year was a challenging year for our asset class. Overall, fixed income as a whole suffered from the increase in US treasuries, pressured by worsening inflation post-COVID exacerbated by commodity prices as a result of the conflict in Ukraine. Specifically, the US Treasury 10 year increased over 1.0 percentage points from 2.36% to 3.45% during the period, peaking at over 4.2% in October 2022. In addition, Emerging Markets had additional headwinds due to the deterioration in global sentiment as illustrated by the strengthening of the US Dollar. The technical picture was dreadful with over $80bn of outflows for Emerging Markets fixed income as an asset class in the 2022 calendar year.

Diving deeper in the universe's return breakdown, the IG sub-index (-8.2% in USD underperformed the HY sub-index (-7.6% in USD) during the period due to the increase in rates. On a spread basis, IG was wider by only 1bp while HY widened by over 130bp. Noteworthy is that the BB and B segment actually tightened 12bp and 7bp, respectively, while the CCC and below bucket widened by almost 1,000bp. On a regional basis, Asia and Africa were the underperformers (-9.5% and -9.4%, respectively, in USD). On the other hand, Middle East fared the best on a relative basis, returning -5.8% in USD. Regarding specific countries, certain idiosyncratic stories were top performers like El Salvador (+15.3% in USD) and Tunisia (+10.1% in USD), while others like Ukraine (-51.2% in USD) and Lebanon (-51.4% in USD) were at the bottom. Note that universe's performances uses the J.P. Morgan EMBIG Diversified as a proxy.

Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Emerging Bonds' performance during this period was mainly driven by Ukraine on the back of the conflict. Overall, Ukrainian sovereign bonds more than halved in this period, while the Sub-fund had over 5.8% of exposure as of the end of March 2022. Another key driver was the performance of both Venezuela and Argentina as the Sub-fund had 14.4% and 12.1%, respectively, as of the end of March 2022. Specifically, Venezuela bonds underperformed the benchmark by almost 10 percentage points given the deterioration in risk sentiment globally and lack of sufficient catalysts locally. Exposure to Africa and CCCs and below-rated bonds were also contributors to the underperformance. As highlighted above, Africa was one of the biggest underperformers within Emerging Markets, which ultimately negatively impacted the Sub-fund's performance. Additionally, credits like Ghana, Sri Lanka and to a lesser extent, Zambia, were also drags. On the positive side, certain hedges like CDS did somewhat mitigate these factors.

The average credit rating of the portfolio increased from CCC+ from the end of March 2022 to B as of early April 2023 on the back of a reduction in exposure to Venezuela and Argentina as well as an increase in IG positions, particularly Eastern Europe. Regarding modified duration, the Sub-fund increased from 5.2 to 6.0 as the global risks shifted from inflation to recession fears during the period. At the same time, Assets under Management decreased from over US$41mn to around $15mn due to outflows on the back of the challenges described above.

5. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Emerging Credit

During the period under review, US dollar-denominated emerging corporate debt markets were characterized by an environment split into two distinct periods: a generally negative period until the end of August and a period of sustained recovery from the end of October to the end of March. The period under review was marked by constant volatility in US interest rates linked to the expectations and actions of the US Federal Reserve in its fight against rising inflation. However, in this environment, the emerging corporate debt market showed significant resilience and performed in line with its developed market fixed income counterparts.

In the credit segment, high yield bonds (+0.2%) slightly outperformed the investment grade segment (-2.9%). Short- and medium-duration bonds outperformed those with longer maturities.

At the regional level, all regions showed negative performance of -6.34% over the period, with the exception of Europe (+7.8%), which benefited from the strong recovery in Ukraine after the shock of the beginning of 2022. Asia was down by 1.3%, Latin America by 3.8%, Africa by 2.3% and the Middle East by 1.4%.

The sectors were also negatively oriented: -0.3% for Financials, -0.4% for Metals & Mining, -2.5% for Oil & Gas, -3.6% for Transportation and -4.8% for Real Estate.

In this environment, the Sub-fund recorded a negative performance of -3.6% over the period, slightly below that of its benchmark (-1.5%). In terms of our country allocation, our strongest convictions contributed unevenly to performance. Argentina made a significant positive contribution (+1.7%). Ukraine and Turkey also contributed positively (+0.4%) to performance, as did Chile. Brazil, notably through the Transportation and Infrastructure sectors, made a negative contribution, as did our allocation to Nigeria, Peru and the Colombian oil and banking sectors.

In addition, our strong underweight in the Chinese market, particularly in Real Estate, was favorable given the underperformance of this sector over the period.

The Sub-fund's net assets decreased from $588 million to $359 million at the end of the period, in line with the trend observed in the asset class during the period under review.

6. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Investment Grade Credit

EUR I class

The period under review can be divided into two distinct sub-periods. From April to mid-October, central banks worldwide were caught short by the acceleration in inflationary pressure. In reaction, they adopted more restrictive monetary policies by rapidly raising their interest rates and signalling their intention to reduce their balance sheets.

Interest rate curves rose and steepened as a result. By way of example, over the period the 10-year US Treasury rate increased from 2.42% to 4.24% and the 2-year rate from 2.41% to 4.61%.

With this historically rapid rate hike cycle, credit spreads widened sharply to reflect the fears of a hard landing of the global economy. US investment grade spreads increased from 136 bps to 186 bps for JP Morgan's JULI index. The annual yield of this index rose from 3.89% to 6.28%, causing heavy losses in bond portfolios.

In the second part of the year, the macroeconomic outlook improved. Consumption in the United States and Europe proved to be resilient in a context of high inflation. Furthermore, the favourable weather conditions made it possible to avoid energy rationing, which Sub-fund would have greatly penalised industry, particularly in Europe. Credit spreads thus narrowed and interest rates dropped. Against this backdrop the Sub-fund recovered nearly 40% of its negative performance in mid-October.

During the period the Sub-fund recorded a performance of -9.33% for the I unit in euro, compared with -4.47% for the linked index.

The main reason for the underperformance was the long average duration of the Sub-fund compared to its benchmark. In order to better reflect the Sub-fund's strategy, the decision was made to change the index in the last quarter of 2022, opting for Bloomberg Global Aggregate Corporate, which is the benchmark index for the category and for rival Sub-funds.

7. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Euro High Yield

Compartiment	Gérant 1	Gérant 2
EDMOND DE ROTHSCHILD FUND - EURO HIGH YIELD	Léo ABELLARD	Alexis FORET

2022 was a dark year for bonds overall driven by a sum of negative factors including but not limited to the resurgence of geopolitical risk in Europe, the rise in inflation due to both energy price surge and covid reopening, central banks aggressively raising rates to fight the former, and credit spread premium widening across the credit spectrum. As a result bonds total return were deeply negative and corporate issuers acted quite cautiously limiting their new issuance of bonds in an environment where cost of debt was rising fast. Q4 was a turning point with inflation fears receding as US CPI started to go down. The disinflation trend started then made the central bank pivot timing closer than expected, boosted risk assets and fueled bond rally through credit spread tightening across ratings.

The 1Y rolling performance of Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Euro High Yield on the I is a modest -4.11% (versus -4.33 on index) but is a tale of two stories whereby the Sub-fund lost in absolute performance on both impacts from rates and Credit spreads until 13th October. At that point the Sub-fund reached -10.3% and since then experienced a sharp rally of +6.9% until end of March driving total return totaling to an annualized negative 4.11%.

Gross of fees, the Sub-fund posted -3.36% vs -4.33%. The relative gross outperformance of +0.98% can be broken down under three main sub factors:

IR rates : 1.19% as we were underweight throughout the year

Carry : -1.10% due to our cautious positioning

Spreads : +0.77% due to our Beta underweight in a widening market

As end of March with a carry of close to 7% gross of fees and focusing on the belly of HY with an average rating of BB- the Sub-fund is well-positioned to benefit from the carry strategy and the reopening of the credit markets. The fading recession fears is in that respect a good catalyst for the Sub-fund as evidenced by the recent inflows in the target dated Sub-funds underlying investors had been reallocating to spread assets from Q4 2022 to Q1 2023.

8. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Bond Allocation

Over the period, the Sub-funds posted a performance of -6.47% (I EUR share class) versus -9.66% for its reference index. The Sub-fund outperformed by 319 basis points, mainly due to a modified duration lower than that of its benchmark. Faced with a sharp increase in inflation trend, central banks turned hawkish and adopted more restrictive monetary policies, notably by raising interest rates. We positioned Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Bond Allocation at the low end of its range (-2 to +8 years) of modified duration (i.e. between 0 and 3 years) without going negative on modified duration, because even though we had significantly reduced our position on spread duration, we still had a position. Later in the fourth quarter, our modified duration increased, before being significantly reduced in December when rates rebounded strongly after the November rally. In 2023, we began to identify entry points for increasing our modified duration – from the low level reached at the end of December – as we considered that the terminal rates of central bank policies were beginning to be fairly valued.

Against this backdrop of geopolitical tensions and deteriorating financial conditions (hawkish stance of central bankers), our spread duration exposure was reduced until the end of the third quarter, when spread widening started to become cheap. Our exposure to spread duration was increased in order to achieve a yield of c.6% on our investments, with a preference for Investment Grade corporates, High Yield corporates, sub-financial debt and EM sovereign debt. We then maintained this global positioning outside of tactical positioning adjustments, believing it to offer an attractive yield in line with our expectations and the overall increase in our modified duration positioning.

9. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Emerging Sovereign

From March 31st, 2022 to April 1st, 2023, the Sub-fund posted a net Sub-fund performance of -14.52% (EUR hedged I Share class) versus the J.P. Morgan's EMBIG Diversified's -9.9% (EUR Hedged).

Last year was a challenging year for our asset class. Overall, fixed income as a whole suffered from the increase in US treasuries, pressured by worsening inflation post-COVID exacerbated by commodity prices as a result of the conflict in Ukraine. Specifically, the US Treasury 10 year increased over 1.0 percentage points from 2.36% to 3.45% during the period, peaking at over 4.2% in October 2022. In addition, Emerging Markets had additional headwinds due to the deterioration in global sentiment as illustrated by the strengthening of the US Dollar. The technical picture was dreadful with over $80bn of outflows for Emerging Markets fixed income as an asset class in the 2022 calendar year.

Diving deeper in the EMBIG Diversified's return breakdown, the IG sub-index (-8.2% in USD underperformed the HY sub-index (-7.6% in USD) during the period due to the increase in rates. On a spread basis, IG was wider by only 1bp while HY widened by over 130bp. Noteworthy is that the BB and B segment actually tightened 12bp and 7bp, respectively, while the CCC and below bucket widened by almost 1,000bp. On a regional basis, Asia and Africa were the underperformers (-9.5% and -9.4%, respectively, in USD). On the other hand, Middle East fared the best on a relative basis, returning -5.8% in USD. Regarding specific countries, certain idiosyncratic stories were top performers like El Salvador (+15.3% in USD) and Tunisia (+10.1% in USD), while others like Ukraine (-51.2% in USD) and Lebanon (-51.4% in USD) were at the bottom.

Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Emerging Sovereign's performance during this period was mainly driven by Ukraine on the back of the conflict. Overall, Ukrainian sovereign bonds more than halved in this period, while the Sub-fund had over 4% of exposure as of the end of March 2022. Exposure to Africa (over 30%, including Egypt as of the end of March 2022) was also a material driver. As highlighted above, Africa was one of the biggest underperformers within Emerging Markets, which ultimately negatively impacted the Sub-fund's performance. Additionally, the Sub-fund's OW in the CCC and below segment, especially stories like Ghana and Sri Lanka and Zambia, was also a negative contributor. On the positive side, certain hedges like CDS did somewhat mitigate these factors.

The average credit rating of the portfolio increased from B+ from the end of March 2022 to BB- as of early April 2023 as the exposure to IG increased, particularly to Eastern Europe. Regarding modified duration, the Sub-fund increased from 6.8 to 7.3 as the global risks shifted from inflation to recession fears during the period. At the same time, Assets under Management decreased from over US$180mn to less than $50mn due to outflows on the back of the challenges described above.

10. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Income Europe

Over the period, the Sub-fund recorded a negative performance of -3.78% (IA EUR unit).

Over the period, the weight of the equity portfolio was 28.5% and posted a gross performance of +5.0%. The biggest positive contributions were Total (+30 bps), Deutsche Telekom (+25 bps) and Novo Nordisk (+25 bps) while the main negative contributions were Vonovia (-17 bps), Equinor (-23 bps) and Cofinimmo (-24 bps). Hedging via options or equity index futures caused net exposure to the equity markets to vary between 23.2% at the start of the period and 16% at the end of the period, the lowest point in the year. We continually reduced equity exposure as the probability of recession, albeit moderate, increased in our macro scenario. The expected dividend yield stood at 4.58% at the end of the period, compared with 4.03% at end March 2022. At the end of March 2023, the equity portfolio remained focused on quality stocks with a defensive bias. Our biggest sector overweightings compared to the Stoxx 600 are telecoms, utilities and insurance (although the underweighting of banks results in a neutral exposure to financials overall). Given the overall direction of the equity markets over the year, hedging represented a cost over the period, bringing the net contribution of the equity allocation, after hedging, to +75 bps.

On the credit side, we increased the average quality of the portfolio over the year, and gradually extended the duration, both via direct investments and towards the end of the period via interest rate futures, in order to benefit from the more attractive levels of rates, both in absolute terms and considering that sensitivity to rates once again represented an attractive inverse correlation to risky assets in the event of a macroeconomic deterioration, following a year in which the usual correlation had been disrupted by the rise in inflation. The sensitivity of the Sub-fund in relation to its bond portion therefore increased from 3.09 to 4.38 at the end of the period. In this context, we increased the credit portion from 62% in March 2022 to 66% in March 2023. Within this portion we reduced the HY corporate component from 30% to 20% and increased the IG corporate component from 4% to 16% over the period. The subordinated financial debt and hybrid corporate portions remained stable overall, taking into consideration the attractive yield levels compared to the real risk of extension. We also introduced a short duration strategy (with a 40% HY/60% IG profile) for 4% via a UCITS investment. Over the period, the HY and subordinate financials represented the two main negative contributions with -104 bps and -143 bps respectively. Following equivalent performances in 2022, we note a strong divergence at the expense of financials against the backdrop of the failures of the US regional banks and Crédit Suisse at the end of the period. The Sub-fund had no exposure to these issuers.

11. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Europe Synergy

The Sub-fund's performance (2.25%) was in line with its benchmark index over the whole period, and performed better in the first quarter of 2023. The presence of large stocks with a reward profile, particularly sought after in a context of instability on the markets, was therefore judicious. The stock selection in Telecoms was especially favourable. Deutsche Telekom was thus boosted by its US subsidiary T-Mobile, which reported results that exceeded expectations, and KPN demonstrated its defensive quality. In healthcare, Sanofi was supported at the end of the period by its flagship product Dupixent, which met its primary criteria in its phase 3 clinical trial, with the group announcing that its treatment could become the first biological medicine to treat chronic obstructive pulmonary disease. We also mention Spie, which benefited from its favourable exposure to electrification and energy efficiency trends. Conversely, in Capital Goods, Signify suffered from the downward revision of its cash flow and earnings outlook for 2022, after the supply chain disruptions, inflation and foreign exchange effects weighed on its performance in the second quarter. The portfolio was also impacted in relative terms by the absence of some large cyclical stocks, such as Siemens and Safran. In the Materials sector, Stora Enso saw its share price drop sharply due to the negative trend of pulp prices. In payment services, Nexi fell in November following a Q3 publication that was badly received by the market and the disposal of the stake by Intesa SanPaolo.

Highlights:

Over the period, the management team made profits regularly on stocks that had performed well, such as Burberry, Shell and Aixtron, as well as on Banco BPM and Bankinter in the banking sector. The lower probability of a merger scenario led the management team to reduce its position in Spie and take profits. The divestment of the position in Worldline was initiated. The position in UMG (a spin-off of Vivendi), which did not meet the eligibility criteria of the strategy and had an ESG rating that was too low, was sold, as was the position in Vivendi itself, after its recent good performance. A holding was built up in Sandvik following its sharp decline at the start of 2022 and after reassuring quarterly results. The position in Ericsson was sold in favour of strengthening Deutsche Telekom. These movements improved the overall ESG rating of the portfolio, due especially to the current controversy surrounding Ericsson. Lastly, as part of the consolidation of its core markets, Liberty Global announced the end of the period for the purchase of minority interests in its Belgian subsidiary Telenet, which it has controlled since 2007 and in which it already held 59% of the capital. The offer was made with a 59% premium.

12. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Strategic Emerging

During the period of March 2022 to March 2023, the Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Strategic Emerging went down by 13.5% versus MSCI EM 8.55%.

In 2022 marked a volatile year for emerging market. It started with Russia's invasion to Ukraine, soaring energy and food prices. Massive US/EU sanctions followed. Fed, as expected hiked interest rates (with FOMC Powell delivering a hawkish speech of "higher for longer"). Bond yields spiked. Adding to that the geopolitical tension between US and China escalated, following several sanctions in the tech sector. Korea and Taiwan had been negatively affected, not only by the increasing uncertainties on the geopolitical side, weaker Chinese economy, but also on the strong correction of semiconductor prices, after a strong inventory building during the covid-19 period.

Following its policy of zero-covid, China Government announced several covid-19 lock downs throughout the year. The Chinese real estate gained the headlines, after developers' financial problems. Finally, in October, after the 20th Party Congress reelected Xi Jinping confirmed to his third consecutive mandate, the Chinese Government decided to reopen its economy earlier than expected, by relaxing its zero covid policy. In 4Q22, Emerging Market rebounded strongly on this news, driven by the Chinese market.

India market benefited from the geopolitical situation, as US/EU sanctioned Russian oil, India was able to buy cheaper oil. That was key to prevent Indian inflation, albeit at higher level due to higher food prices, inflation was contained at the level of 6-7%. RBI increased interest rates, as most of EM Central Banks. Moreover, the supply chain diversification, China plus one strategy also benefited India, bringing higher investments, especially in the electronics sector. Apple started the assemblage of its Iphone in India not only to exports, but also to its domestic market.

The Latam region benefited from higher commodity prices, and lower political risk. The inflation in the region also increased strongly, taking Central Banks to hike interest rates. Mexico benefitted from stronger than expected growth due to US resilient economy and tight labor market, which drove remittances to a record level. Mexico, just like India, also has been benefiting from nearshoring strategy, gaining market share in US imports and receiving higher direct investments.

Positioning and main portfolio movements:

The mains contributors to the Sub-fund performance were companies that benefited from:1) the reopening after covid ; 2) from supply chain diversification and 3) energy transition: OMA, Mexican airport in Monterey, an industrial area close to US border saw its traffic bouncing back. Ctrip, Chinese on-line travel agency; and LG Chem, a Korean battery producer. The main detractors of the Sub-fund were Natura, Banco Santander and Alibaba, companies severely affected by the higher inflation environment, Chinese economy slowdown and geopolitical situation.

The Sub-fund position in Mexico (OW); in Saudi Arabia (UW) and United Arab Emirates (UW) contributed positively to its performance, while China (UW) and India (OW) were detractors. In terms of sectors, the industrials (OW), materials (UW) and Real Estate (UW) had a positive contribution but not enough to offset the negative contribution from energy (UW); consumer discretionary (OW) and staples (OW).

During the period, we added companies such as: Yadea (electrical scooter producer in China, related to energy transition theme; Grupo Traxion, Mexico logistic, related to nearshoring; and Mahindra & Mahindra a car producer in India, related to energy transition theme as well. We strengthened the tech sector in Korea and in Taiwan; Samsung, Hynix and TSMC. We reduced the financial sector AIA; BCA and Banorte.

Outlook

EDMOND DE ROTHSCHILD FUND

We are constructive on Emerging Markets in relative terms. Emerging Markets have started their tightening cycle earlier. Despite FED ongoing tightening, the cycle has been done to a large extent. China's reopening is an important tailwind for Emerging Markets, especially in Asia. Korea also benefits from US renewables policy (IRA) and tech sector cycle bottoming out. In India, we are slightly OW, neutral due to high valuation. Mexico profits from nearshoring and US tight labor market. In China, concerning the real estate sector, we assume that the government will manage the downturn and avoid the systematic risk. We remain market weight on China, due to geopolitical concerns. We are OW on Korea and tech sector due to discounted valuation. We are OW LatAm, we took some profits on bank sector, due to valuation, and increased consumption sector. We remain UW on Middle East. The strategic core positions stood at 70% of the Sub-fund while inflection positions stood at 30% of the Sub-fund.

13. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - US Value

Name	Performance
Edmond de Rothschild Fund - US Value I-EUR Proforma	-1.83%

Edmond de Rothschild Fund - US Value (I-EUR Proforma) outperformed its benchmark over the period from 31/03/2022 to 31/03/2023 and recorded a performance of -1.83% (compared with -8.24% for the Russel 1000 Value). The main contributors to the Sub-fund's performance were the companies in the energy sector, which represent one of the Sub-fund's largest overweights. In oil services we note the case of Valaris, which benefits from the renewed interest and strong positive trends in the offshore oil and gas sector, and in producer companies: Hess has benefited from the re-rating of the entire sector despite the drop in oil and gas spot prices. We can also mention the very good performance of our cyclical consumer companies, which despite an unfavourable environment and the threat of recession, have benefited from a significant re-rating after valuations at the start of the period that had priced in the most pessimistic scenarios (Pulte, Las Vegas Sands, Coty, Strategic Education). In healthcare, our exposure was very positive and supported the Sub-fund's performance (Merck). Lastly, we note several good performances in the industrial sector following better-than-expected results (Caterpillar) and a reassuring outlook with increased prospects for growth in the order book (General Electric).

Conversely, the Sub-fund suffered from the weak performance of financials following the failure of the three US regional banks, which sent a wave of panic across the banking and insurance sector. This was notably what explained the poor performances of Allstate, American International, Citigroup and Bank of America. Medical equipment and service companies also dented our performance as they suffered from sharp contraction of multiples over the period combined with operational problems (CVS Health, Brookdale Senior).

Over the period under review we mainly reinforced our exposure to health stocks (which we consider attractive as they have both defensive and value characteristics) and sold several cyclical stocks (notably financials). The Sub-fund's performance was nevertheless heavily impacted by the failures of the regional banks (despite the fact that we did not have any in the portfolio) and we reinforced to a certain extent our cyclical exposures, which suffered the most at the time.

14. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Healthcare

Our stock selection enabled us to significantly outperform our index over the year ending March 31st, 2023 (perf -0.65%).

Large biotechs were strong contributors, including Gilead, Biogen and Seagen which was acquired by Pfizer. Performance also benefited from our selection of Pharma names like Merck & Co and Lilly. Our limited exposure to the richly valued Medtech segment that faced headwinds in the period was also favorable. Nevertheless, let's mention the strong performance of dental player Align Technology. On the other hand, we experienced some temporary disappointments including the decline of Brookdale Senior Living, due to staff shortage, inflation and slow occupancy rate recovery and Baxter. Main new positions in the portfolio include Novartis (underappreciated innovative pharma company), Novo Nordisk (diabetes leader at the forefront of the future obesity market), Siemens Healthineers (leader in radiology) and Biomarin (orphan diseases player involved in gene therapy in hemophilia A). In the period we sold Labcorp, Teleflex, Perrigo and Stericycle.

After proving its resilience in an uncertain macroeconomic environment in 2022, the healthcare sector experienced one of its worst relative performances in Q1 23. The return of investor optimism about the economy and the reopening of China has favored technology stocks at the expense of defensive stocks, particularly healthcare stocks that performed well in 2022. The MSCI ACWI Healthcare (net total return in EUR) ended the period 1.8% lower.

In that context, large profitable biotechs (+1% in EUR) and Pharma (+0%) were the best performers in the year ending March 31st. The adoption of the Inflation Reduction Act framed the impact on drug prices and lowered the risk of further far-reaching reforms.

Services ended the period lower (-6%). US health insurers in particular were penalized by prospects of a higher utilization (higher healthcare costs) in a post-Covid context.

Medtech (-11%) and Life Science and Tools (-12%), two of the most expensive sub-sectors experienced a multiple compression driven by higher interest rates and cost inflation.

Early stage biotechs (-14%) and Healthcare Tech companies (-20%), typically long duration assets, were also impacted by higher interest rates as well as tighter financing conditions following several record years of public offerings.

M&A returned to the forefront in late 2022/early 2023 (Pfizer/Seagen for 43 Md$, Amgen/Horizon for 27 Md$, J&J/Abiomed for 16Md$). Finally, the sector kept on delivering transforming innovations including new treatment for Alzheimer, a first proof of concept for mRNA in Cancer (Moderna's Personnalized Cancer Vaccine in Melanoma) or the first European approval of a gene therapy against hemophilia A.

15. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Equity Opportunities

Over the period last ended, the benchmark index (MSCI World Net Total Return) fell by 4.8%, impacted by persistently high inflation in the US and a more aggressive stance by the Fed. Against this backdrop, the Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Equity Opportunities Sub-fund was down by 5.2% (I EUR class), underperforming its benchmark by 40 bps. The Sub-fund benefited from its overexposure to the energy sector (Schlumberger, ConocoPhillips), which saw its performance fuelled by the oil price and the resumption of spending in the oil services sector. Likewise, the overweighting of European stocks in the portfolio positively impacted the relative performance of the Sub-fund (the SXXP rose 3.4% over the period last ended).

Stock picking remained the main performance driver for the Sub-fund. In this respect, we note the very positive contributions of Sailpoint (+100 bps), SAP (+68 bps) and Vinci (+50 bps).

Conversely, some stocks had a negative impact on the Sub-fund, such as Brookdale (-134 bps), Baxter (-146 bps) and First Republic Bank (-217 bps). The portfolio is focused on companies that could benefit from an improvement in their competitive environment. The opening of a new macroeconomic sequence, with less government support, is set to accelerate the movement and favour sector leaders. This is why the Sub-fund has retained Amadeus, Brookdale and China Overseas, for example. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Equity Opportunities also invests in companies helping countries to achieve their objectives in terms of independence or economic sovereignty.

This is the case for companies such as Visa, ConocoPhillips, Thalès and Airbus. The portfolio is composed of companies that could benefit from specific performance divers (Stericycle, Radnet, Mastec), which should offset the impact of the macroeconomic environment. More generally, we maintain a particularly disciplined approach to the valuation multiples of portfolio companies.

16. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - China

For the year ended March 2023, the Edmond de Rothschild Fund - China Sub-fund recorded a drop of 3.4% in euro, an underperformance of 75 basis points compared with its benchmark. The absence of exposure to the energy and State bank sectors penalised us. Conversely, our stock picking in the consumer, Internet and industrial sectors contributed positively to relative performance.

Over the period, the Sub-fund overweighted the consumer discretionary (36% of the portfolio), communications (16% of the portfolio) and healthcare (8% of the portfolio) sectors, which we had reinforced during the year. We continue to underexpose the financial and commodities sectors and we do not have positions in the energy and utilities sectors due to our ESG commitment. Quality stocks with high capacity for innovation, with a post-Covid resumption of activity or in an under-penetrated market segment, continue to be our main positions.

The top three portfolio convictions to fully benefit from the rebound of the Chinese economy were Tencent, Alibaba and Meituan (23% of the Sub-fund in March 2023). However, these securities experienced an extremely volatile year due to the strict zero-Covid policy and geopolitical tensions, despite a gradual easing of the regulatory context. Although the Internet is probably no longer the long-term driver of the Chinese economy, we believe that these companies could post significant growth in earnings in 2023, with the return of consumer confidence. In addition to optimistic prospects for the start of the year, their valuation levels remained attractive. We therefore maintain our strong positions on these three stocks, as well as on Bilibili, PDD and Weimob. Health stocks also delivered good performances thanks to better prospects of growth following the reopening. Conversely, our positions in the real estate and construction materials sectors did not perform well. However, several data point to signs of a recovery; we therefore anticipate an acceleration in growth in real estate transactions over the coming quarters. The Chinese economy is thus set to continue its recovery in 2023 and the new growth drivers–technology, new energies, automation etc.–should play an important long-term role despite persistent geopolitical tensions.

With favourable liquidity conditions, the stabilisation of the real estate market and the return of corporate earnings growth, we expect a better absolute performance for Chinese equities for the rest of 2023. The valuation of the Chinese market remains attractive in absolute and relative terms, given its growth profile for the next two years. A re-rating could take place in the near future if geopolitical tensions stabilise at current levels.

17. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Big Data

Over the period under review, the Sub-fund dropped slightly in absolute terms (-2.11% for the I unit compared with -4.78% for its benchmark), but outperformed relatively to its benchmark. This performance was above all driven by our stock selection in the technology and communications services sectors, which more than offset the effect of the sector allocation, which was particularly penalising for performance, but intrinsic to the Sub-fund's investment process. At least 50% of our investments are structurally linked to companies in the area of infrastructure and big data analysis.

The M&A transactions concerning Zendesk, Telenet and ForgeRock boosted the portfolio in this context. We do not expect a repeat of these transaction volumes with such significant premiums. However, these transactions are a reminder of the strategic nature of the companies operating at the core of this field. Another noteworthy event, our against-the-trend reinforcement of exposure to European stocks from September onwards, widened our distance from the benchmark, but contributed to our performance in the period under review. This overweighting aimed to take advantage of both the weak euro, which improves the competitiveness of the eurozone's technology players, and the more attractive valuations than those across the Atlantic.

18. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Asean Equity

The Sub-fund was relatively flat in a stable range. Sub-fund's price oscillations were generally within single-digit percentages. (perf -5.78%) Domestic demand outperformed externally-oriented countries and sectors. Indonesia and Consumer Discretionary were the best performing country and sector respectively while Philippines and Materials performed the weakest.

Market direction and volatility was relatively subdued because opposing macro dynamics neutralized each other. Domestic growth recovery from post-pandemic reopening was offset by global inflation risk and tightening global liquidity from Fed rate hikes and quantitative tightening. Market earnings growth from domestic demand recovery was offset by market derating from higher interest rates.

19. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Equity Euro Core

The performance of the strategy closed the financial year slightly lower than its benchmark (5.54%), having been penalised in the second half of the period. However, stock selection was particularly favourable in Capital Goods, with Dassault Aviation and Thalès, which benefited greatly from the increase in military spending related to the geopolitical tensions and the war in Ukraine. The exposure to the recovery of air traffic via Airbus was also positive. However, the absence of Siemens, the biggest weighting in the sector in the index, was costly in relative terms. Stock selection was also very favourable in Pharmacy, particularly in the case of Novo Nordisk, which posted very solid growth in sales, especially through its main franchise GLP-1, which is very well positioned on diabetes and obesity. The absence of real estate also helped in the current context of rising rates. As for Spie, it benefited from its favourable exposure to the electrification and energy efficiency trends. Finally, we would also point to our stock selection in Telecoms, with Deutsche Telekom, boosted by its US subsidiary T-Mobile, which reported results exceeding expectations, and KPN, which demonstrated its defensive quality. Conversely, we were penalised by the absence of Luxury stocks, which notably benefited from the reopening of China and publications that demonstrated their resilience. In Media, the announcement of an agreement on the increase in the stake in Ubisoft by Chinese company Tencent reduced the speculative appeal of the share. The group also issued a profit warning in January, due to a weaker sales trend than expected at the end of 2022 and the start of 2023. JC Decaux, sold off during the period, was also penalised by its exposure to China (20% of sales) over the holding period. Lastly, in the banking segment, despite a favourable overweighting that has a positive impact on the net interest margin of banks in the current context of rising rates, our selection of more qualitative players (BNP Paribas, Crédit Agricole) underperformed Southern European stocks. Likewise, while the overweighting of energy was positive, our position in GTT underperformed oil stocks over the period, despite the entry of Repsol.

Highlights:

Repsol entered the portfolio in June, given its exposure to gas in the US, refining margins at historic highs and a strong upturn of margins in its petrochemical activity, allowing for strong free cash flow generation. Reciprocally, SoftwareOne was sold off, as the company has poor prospects in the post-Covid context, with margins under pressure and a low valuation that we do not consider provides protection. We also sold Faurecia, which despite a high-quality management team has not seen a pick-up in volumes and has a leveraged balance sheet, which is not ideal in the current context. In exchange, Airbus was reinforced, since it benefits from a continuing favourable commercial momentum, as was Allianz on the back of the agreement reached with the US regulator concerning controversial funds. We also took advantage of the market upturn to sell Worldline, which still harbours a lot of uncertainties over its structural challenges, in particular in the context of a possible slowdown in consumption post the reopening in Europe. On the other hand, some quality cyclical names were reinforced (Airbus, Stellantis, Schneider and Dassault Systèmes). In November, we benefited from the upturn that took place at the start of Q4 to sell JC Decaux, as the slowdown in spending of advertisers in Europe may not be offset by the prospects linked to the reopening of China, in our view. Furthermore, the positive impact of digital on margins does not appear obvious to us, and the valuation remains demanding. Lastly, we also took profits on stocks that had performed well, such as FinecoBank, Total, Novo Nordisk and Thalès in February 2023.

20. Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Human Capital

Over the period last ended (1 April 2022 to 31 March 2023), the benchmark (MSCI ACWI USD) fell by 7.4%. The performance was -6.39%. 2022 had indeed been marked by a sharp drop on the equity markets fuelled by persistent inflation and the resultant shift in monetary policy. Against this backdrop, the Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Human Capital Sub-fund was down 8.5% (K USD class), underperforming its benchmark by 1.1%. 2022 was characterised by the biggest bear market for the bond asset class in more than 30 years. This ended up massively penalising the shares of companies with long duration profiles, and specifically "growth" and "quality". The Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Human Capital Sub-fund is very sensitive to the "quality" cohort, as companies that pay particular attention to the training and well-being of their employees are generally those operating with high margins, solid balance sheets and a long-term strategic vision, all of which are characteristics typical of high-quality companies. The Edmond de Rothschild Fund - Human Capital Sub-fund thus suffered from this sensitivity, which entirely explains its underperformance. The quality of the stock picking was able to partially offset the negative impact of such factor and sector exposures (Edmond de Rothschild HC is also overweight in technology). We note in particular the good contribution of stocks such as New Oriental (contributing 133 bps), Merck (85bps) and Schlumberger (66bps). We also note that the positive contributions to the performance come from both the "business model" component and the "best practices" component, which reflects the relevance of the management's philosophy.

We expect a marked deceleration in the US economy in the upcoming months. It is set to suffer from the backlash of the reduction in households' budgetary leeway with the end of the savings surplus and the first effects of the rate hikes implemented in 2022. The portfolio is composed of companies with specific strong stories that should be able to withstand more difficult macroeconomic conditions. From a factor point of view, a monetary policy change by the Fed could also play in favour of our focusing on quality companies.

21. Edmond de Rothschild - Quam 5

For the second quarter of 2022 the portfolio allocation reduced gradually the active risk by lowering the exposure in fixed income and equity and continued under-weighting fixed income and equity during Q3 (maintaining weights between 5%-10% for fixed income and 21%-25% for equities). In the timeframe the Sub-fund suffered from the rise of interest rates and from the fragility of equity sector. The dynamic nature of the Sub-fund's strategy allowed it to adapt swiftly to changing market conditions. By closely monitoring and evaluating the prevailing economic landscape, the Sub-fund's quantitative models and algorithms identified the need for a higher allocation to money market instruments. During the final quarter of 2022 the allocation was on a risk off mode until December. As the fed hikes and the sideways bear market of 2022 continued the model minimized exposure to equities and fixed income assets. Finally starting from December 2022 the portfolio adds more active risk both in equities as well as in fixed income as the attractive yields and the surprising resilience of the equity markets offer good investing opportunities.

Over the period 31.03.2022 - 31.03.2023 the Sub-fund registered a negative performance of -5.12% (share A-EUR).

The allocation to money market instruments played a crucial role in reducing portfolio risk and enhancing overall stability. In adverse market conditions, such as increased volatility, economic uncertainty, or unexpected events, money market instruments provide a safe haven, preserving capital and providing liquidity.

The Sub-fund's use of these instruments allowed it to navigate through turbulent periods and maintain a defensive position when needed.

Overall, the Sub-fund's allocation driven by its quantitative models and algorithms, proved to be a strategic response to the prevailing adverse market conditions.

- the combined statement of net assets for the Fund and the statement of net assets for each of the sub-funds as at 31 March 2023;
- the statement of investments in securities and other net assets as at 31 March 2023;
- the combined statement of operations for the Fund and the statement of operations and changes in net assets for each of the sub-funds for the year then ended; and
- the notes to the financial statements, which include a summary of significant accounting policies.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 on the audit profession (Law of 23 July 2016) and with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs) as adopted for Luxembourg by the “Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier” (CSSF). Our responsibilities under the Law of 23 July 2016 and ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF are further described in the “Responsibilities of the “Réviseur d’entreprises agréé” for the audit of the financial statements” section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

We are independent of the Fund in accordance with the International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, including International Independence Standards, issued by the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA Code) as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements. We have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities under those ethical requirements.

Other information

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information stated in the annual report but does not include the financial statements and our audit report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the Board of Directors of the Fund for the financial statements

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements, and for such internal control as the Board of Directors of the Fund determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for assessing the Fund's and each of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors of the Fund either intends to liquidate the Fund or close any of its sub-funds or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Responsibilities of the “Réviseur d’entreprises agréé” for the audit of the financial statements

The objectives of our audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an audit report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control;
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control;
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors of the Fund;

- conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Directors of the Fund's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Fund's or any of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our audit report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our audit report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Fund or any of its sub-funds to cease to continue as a going concern;
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

The main objective of the SICAV is to preserve the capital in real terms and ensure the growth of its assets. Obviously, no guarantee is given that this objective will be achieved.

The SICAV intends to achieve this objective by the active management of the Sub-Funds which can be divided into four categories. The first category concentrates exclusively on bonds. The second category concerns exclusively stocks and shares. The third category invests both in international bonds and equities. Lastly, the fourth category offers specifically profiled investments in terms of risk/return or a combination of both in the makeup of its portfolio.

Generally speaking, the Sub-Funds' portfolios consist of transferable securities, without restriction or limitation as to industrial, economic or geographical diversification, unless otherwise specifically defined in the investment policy of each Sub-Fund offered.

Shares are issued in registered form for each Sub-Fund. Fractions of shares are issued with four decimal places.

The Management Company may create within each Sub-Fund different Classes of Shares whose assets are commonly invested pursuant to the specific investment policy of the relevant Sub-Fund. Such Classes are distinguished by their fee structure, their distribution policy, their liquidity, and the minimum subscription applicable to them (this list is not exhaustive). The features of the relevant Classes issued within each Sub-Fund are as set out in the relevant Data Sheets.

The Classes in certain Sub-Funds may themselves be divided into a number of Sub-Classes, each with a different valuation currency by a decision of the Board. Investors' attention is drawn to the fact that depending upon the foreign exchange risk hedging operations put in place or not for each

1 - General information

Sub-Class (hedged Sub-Classes are denominated "(H)", investors are exposed to the risk that the Net Asset Value of any Sub-Class denominated in a given valuation currency may change unfavourably in comparison with that of a Sub-Class denominated in a different valuation currency. It is nevertheless stipulated that the expenses related to any financial instruments that may be employed in foreign exchange risk hedging operations for the Sub-Class in question are allocated exclusively to that Sub-Class.

In order to ensure efficient management, the Board of Directors may decide in accordance with the Articles to manage all or a part of the assets of one or more Sub-Funds together with those of other Sub-Funds (the pooling technique), or to co-manage the entirety or part of the assets with, if necessary, the exception of a reserve in cash, of one or several Sub-Funds together with the assets of other Luxembourg investment funds, or of one or more sub-funds of other Luxembourg investment funds (the Party or Parties to the Assets under Co-Management) for which the Depositary has been designated as the depositary bank. The Co-Management of the relevant assets shall be carried out in accordance with the respective investment policies of the Parties to the Assets under Co-Management, where each pursues identical or comparable objectives (the assets so co-managed or pooled being the Assets under Co-Management). The Parties to the Assets under Co-Management shall only participate in any such pooling or co-management arrangements authorised by their own individual Prospectuses, and in compliance with their own specific investment restrictions.

Each Party to the Assets under Co-Management will participate in the Assets under Co-Management in proportion to their contribution to the Assets under Co-Management. The assets shall be attributed to each Party to the Assets under Co-Management in proportion to their contribution to the Assets under Co-Management.

The rights of each Party to the Assets under Co-Management which take part shall be applicable to each of the lines of investment of such Assets under Co-Management.

Such Assets under Co-Management shall be constituted by the transfer of cash or, if appropriate, other assets of each of the Parties to the Assets under Co-Management. Subsequently, the Board may proceed regularly to make transfers to the Assets under Co-Management. The Assets may equally be transferred back to one of the Parties to the Assets under Co-Management up to the value of the holding of that Party to the Assets under Co-Management.

Dividends, interest, and other distributions which are by nature earnings generated within the context of the Asset Co-Management shall be due to each of the Parties to the Assets under Co-Management in proportion to their holding. Such earnings may be retained by the Party to the Assets under Co-Management with a holding, or be reinvested in the Assets under Co-Management.

All of the costs and expenses incurred with the context of the Co-Management of Assets shall be debited from the Assets under Co-Management. Such costs and expenses shall be attributed to each Party to the Assets under Co-Management in proportion to the rights of each in respect of the Assets under Co-Management.

In the event of a breach of the investment restrictions affecting a Sub-Fund, when such Sub-Fund is a Party to the Assets under Co-Management, the Board of Directors shall, even if the Management Company or, if applicable, the Manager has observed the investment restrictions by applying them to the Assets under Co-Management in question, require that the Management Company or, if applicable, the Manager reduces the investments in question in proportion to the holding of the Sub-Fund in question in the Assets under Co-Management or, if appropriate, shall reduce the holding in the Assets under Co-Management in question such that the investment restrictions are observed in respect of that Sub-Fund.

In the event that the SICAV is dissolved or if the Board of Directors decides without the required notice to withdraw the holding of the SICAV or of a Sub-Fund in the Assets under Co-Management, the Assets under Co-Management shall be allocated to the Parties to the Assets under Co-Management, each in proportion to their holding in the Assets under Co-Management. Investors should be aware of the fact that such Assets under Co-Management are employed solely in order to ensure effective management insofar as all of the Parties to the Assets under Co-Management have the same depositary bank. The Assets under Co-Management do not constitute distinct legal entities and are not directly accessible to investors. Nevertheless, the assets and liabilities of each of the Sub-Funds shall at all times be separate and identifiable.

2.2 - Portfolio valuation

All securities listed on an official stock exchange or on any other regulated market, operating regularly, recognised and open to the public are valued at the last price known in Luxembourg on the valuation day and, if the security is traded on several markets, on the basis of the last known price on the main market of this security. If the last known price is not representative, the valuation is based on the fair value at which it is expected it can be sold, as determined with prudence and in good faith by the Board of Directors.

Unlisted securities or securities not traded on a stock exchange or any other regulated market, operating regularly, recognised and open to the public, are valued based on the fair value at which it is expected they can be sold, as determined with prudence and in good faith by the Board of Directors.

The value of money market instruments are valued by the amortised cost method, which approximates market values. At maturity the difference with the purchase price is disclosed under interest on bonds.

Shares or units of undertakings for collective investment are valued on the basis of their last available net asset value.

2.3 - Net realised profits or losses on sales of investments

Realised gains or losses on sales of investments are calculated on the basis of average cost of investments sold.

2.4 - Foreign currency translation

The financial statements of the Sub-Funds are expressed in the above-mentioned currencies. Bank accounts, other net assets/(liabilities) as well as the valuation value of the portfolio securities that are expressed in a currency other than the currency of the Sub-Fund were converted to the applicable currency at the exchange rates prevailing on March 31, 2023.

Income and fees in currencies other than the currency of each Sub-Fund were converted to the applicable currency at the exchange rates prevailing on the transaction date.

Values expressed in any other currency than the reference currency of the Sub-Fund in question will be converted using the mean rate of exchange of the currency concerned.

The cost of investments in securities in currencies other than the currency of the Sub-Fund is converted to the currency of the Sub-Fund at the exchange rate prevailing on the purchase date.

6 - Depositary and Central Administration

Edmond de Rothschild (Europe) has been appointed by the SICAV, in accordance with the Depositary Agreement, as domiciliary and depositary bank of the SICAV for the supervision/oversight (surveillance) of all assets of the SICAV, including those that are not entrusted to, or kept in safe custody by, the Depositary, as well as for the custody/safekeeping (conservation) of the assets of the SICAV that are entrusted to, or kept in safe custody by, the Depositary and the operations concerning the day-to-day administration of such assets. This agreement has been replaced by a Depositary Bank Agreement dated February 25, 2015 entered into force on January 1, 2015.

A new Depositary Bank Agreement between Edmond de Rothschild (Europe), Edmond de Rothschild Asset Management (Luxembourg) and the SICAV entered into force on December 12, 2016.

By an agreement entered into force for an unlimited duration, the Central Administration Agreement, Edmond de Rothschild (Europe) has been appointed, at the request and with the consent of the SICAV, as the SICAV's Administrative Agent, Registrar and Transfer Agent and Paying Agent (collectively, the "Central Administration"). Further to a transfer of activity, Edmond de Rothschild Asset Management (Luxembourg) has been appointed as Central Administration pursuant to a Central Administration Agreement dated February 25, 2015 coming into force on January 1, 2015.

The Central Administration is in charge of processing of the issue, redemption and conversion of the SICAV's shares and settlement arrangements thereof, keeping the register of the SICAV's shareholders, calculating the net asset value per share, maintaining the records and other general functions as more fully described in the Central Administration Agreement.

The Central Administration may delegate, with the prior consent of the Management Company and subject to the approval of the CSSF, part or all of its administrative functions and duties to a sub-contractor, which, having regard to the nature of the functions and duties to be delegated, must be qualified and capable of undertaking the duties in question.

The Depositary Bank's commission and the Central Administration's commission based on the total net assets of each Sub-Fund (excluding the sub-depositary fees) is set at a maximum of 0.30% per annum.

Any sub-contractor of the Central Administration is paid by the Administrative Agent out of its own remuneration.

7 - Commissions on subscriptions/redemptions

The issue of Shares takes place every Valuation Day. The Shares may be subscribed with the Transfer Agent or the Global Distributor or sales agents or distributors. Investors should note that the redemption price of the Shares is based on the Net Asset Value per Share which may significantly vary over time and that therefore, the redemption price may be higher than, equal to, or lower than the price at which the Shares were acquired by the shareholder at the time of their subscription.

All shareholders who have subscribed to Shares in the SICAV may, at any time, request the redemption of all or part of their Shares.

Requests for conversion should be sent to the Transfer Agent, the Global Distributor, the sales agents or distributors at its registered office in Luxembourg.

8 - Subscription tax ("Taxe d'abonnement")

Under the terms of the legislation in force and current practice, the SICAV is not subject to any tax on income or capital gains in Luxembourg. Similarly, the dividends paid by the SICAV are not affected by any tax at source in Luxembourg. On the other hand, each of the Sub-Funds is subject to the subscription tax, an annual tax on its assets, and is calculated and payable quarterly on the basis of the Net Asset Value of the SICAV at the end of each quarter.

Nevertheless, this tax is not assessed on the SICAV's assets that have been invested in other Investment Funds set up in Luxembourg. Moreover, the issue of Shares is not subject to any stamp duty or other tax in Luxembourg.

Some of the revenues of the portfolio of the SICAV in the form of dividends and interest may be subject to tax at various rates, withheld at source in the countries in which they arise.

The subscription tax rate is as follows:

- Classes A/B/C/CR/CRD/L/LD/LP/R/RS: 0.05%
- Classes CRM/D/E/I/IA/ID/J/K/KD/M/N/N1/N2/O/P/S/T/TD: 0.01%

9 - Other tax matters

CLAIM PROCEDURE FOR WITHHOLDING TAX

In several jurisdictions in the European Union, historically, the withholding tax treatment of the dividends paid by companies in their domiciliation country depended on whether the dividends were paid to foreign or domestic entities. Therefore, when dividends were paid to a foreign entity, they were sometimes subject to a withholding tax that led to a different tax treatment which infringed the principles of the free capital flows and thus, contrary to the European Union law. Several decisions from the European Union Court of Justice and in France of the French State Council have been taken in favor of the foreign residents. Since 2014, Edmond de Rothschild Asset Management (France) filed, for the funds that it managed, claims for the reimbursement of the withholding tax paid on dividends received from foreign companies when the reimbursement perspectives were favorable to the funds and the amounts in question material compared to the costs of proceedings. As the claims follow litigation procedures with the tax authorities, the result and the length of these procedures are uncertain. The reimbursement (i.e. amount and interests as the case may be) that may be obtained is not guaranteed. The filing of the claims is processed by a law firm that levies a fix fee per country, per fund, per year of claim. Upon reimbursement, the law firm levies a success fee.

10 - Dividend distributions

Sub-funds	Share class	ISIN	Ccy	Dividend	Ex-date	Payment date

11 - Swing pricing

The Sub-Funds may suffer dilution of the net asset value per Share due to investors buying or selling Shares at a price that does not take into account dealing and other costs arising when the Investment Manager makes or sells investments to accommodate cash inflows or outflows.

To mitigate the effects of dilution and protect the interests of Shareholders, the Board may, at its discretion, adjust the Net Asset Value depending on whether or not a Sub-Fund is in a net subscription position or in a net redemption position on such Valuation Day.

The dilution adjustment will involve adding to, when the Sub-Fund is in a net subscription position exceeding a predefined threshold (swing threshold), and deducting from, when the Sub-Fund is in a net redemption position exceeding a predefined threshold, the Net Asset Value such figure as the Board considers represents an appropriate figure to meet duties, charges and spreads. In particular, the Net Asset Value of the relevant Sub-Fund will be adjusted (upwards or downwards) by an amount which reflects the estimated fiscal charges, dealing costs that may be incurred by the Sub-Fund and the estimated bid/offer spread of the assets in which the Sub-Fund invests. As certain stock markets and jurisdictions may have different charging structures on the buy and sell sides, the resulting adjustment may be different for net inflows than for net outflows. In exceptional market circumstances (higher market volatility, drying-up of liquidity, widening of the spread, etc.), the adjustment may be temporarily increased beyond the standard factor level but the decision to make such an increase must be duly justified and must take into account the best interest of the investors. Adjustments will however be limited to a maximum of 2% of the then applicable Net Asset Value. Application of swing pricing mechanism is supported by a circular resolution signed by the Board of Directors of the fund, indicating the scope of application of the above-mentioned mechanism, the swing factor and the net capital activity threshold related to each sub fund in scope of this mechanism (The NAV is swung only when a predetermined net capital activity threshold (the swing threshold) is exceeded at each dealing day).

During the year, this mechanism has been applied only to the following Sub- Funds:

Information for Swiss investors

1. General information :

Edmond de Rothschild (Suisse) S.A. has been authorized by the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA as Swiss representative of the Sub-funds of the SICAV for the offer in Switzerland to non-qualified investors and also acts as paying agent of the Sub-funds of the SICAV.

The prospectus, the Key Investors Information Document (KIID), the articles of incorporation, the annual and semi-annual reports of the SICAV, as well as the list of the purchases and sales which the SICAV has undertaken during the period, may be obtained, on simple request and free of charge, from the Swiss representative.

2. Total Expense Ratio (TER) :

The Total Expense Ratio (TER) as at March 31, 2023 for each Sub-Fund is calculated in accordance with the recommendations of the "SFAMA" guideline, approved by the FINMA and is included under the statistical information of each Sub-Fund.

As at September 25, 2020, the SFAMA ("Swiss Funds & Asset Management Association") merged with AMP ("Asset Management Platform") to become the AMAS ("Asset Management Association Switzerland").

The Total Expense Ratio (TER) represents the ratio of the total expenses, except transactions fees, annually supported by the Fund for each Sub-Fund. The TER should be calculated as follows:

TER = Total charges of the Sub-Fund's/Average net asset value of the Sub-Fund.

Average net asset value of the Sub-Fund = Amount of net assets over the year / Observation's number.

If a collective investment scheme invests at least 10% of its net assets, as a fund of funds, in other collective investment schemes (target funds) which publish a TER within the meaning of the present guidelines, a composite (synthetic) TER of the fund of funds is to be calculated as of the closing date of the financial year or the end of the first half of the financial year. This corresponds to the sum of:

- the prorated TER of the individual target funds, weighted on the basis of their proportion in the net assets of the fund of funds as of the closing date,
- the issue and redemption commissions of the target funds actually paid, and
- the TER of the fund of funds minus the reimbursements received from the target funds during the reporting period.

If any of the target funds does not publish a TER pursuant to the present guidelines, the following procedure must be followed when disclosing the costs incurred by the fund of funds:

- Reference must be made to the fact that no composite (synthetic) TER can be determined for the respective portion of the fund of funds.
- A composite (synthetic) value must be indicated for the overall costs that the fund of funds is expected to incur.

To this end:

- o a truncated (synthetic) TER is calculated which - weighted on the basis of the fund of funds' investment proportion - includes the TERs of all target funds for which the TER is determined as per the present guidelines (i.e. target funds with TER), and
- o to this are added for each of the other target funds (i.e. target funds without TER) the issue and redemption commissions plus as precise as possible an estimate of the upper limit of the costs relevant for the TER. This value - weighted on the basis of the target funds' weighting in the fund of funds - must include the maximum management fee and the most recent performance-related management fee available for this target fund.

For the Sub-Funds launched during the period, the Total Expense Ratio (TER) is not presented as it is not representative.

SFDR (Unaudited)

Articles 6:

To meet the SFDR disclosure requirements, the Management Company identifies and analyses Sustainability Risks as part of its risk management process. The Sub-Funds do not promote environmental, social or governance characteristics but the security selection process includes a negative filter to exclude companies that contribute to the production of controversial weapons in compliance with international conventions in this area as well as companies that are exposed to activities related to thermal coal or tobacco in accordance with the exclusion policy of Edmond de Rothschild Group, which is available on its website. Although the inclusion of a Sustainability Risk analysis could help to develop a risk-adjusted return in the long term, the Investment Manager considers that these elements are not essential for generating a return for investors in line with the Sub-funds' investment objectives. Sustainability Risks may not be considered by the Investment Manager to be relevant because Sustainability Risks are not (a) systematically integrated by the relevant Investment Manager in the investment decisions of the relevant Sub-Fund; and/or (b) a core part of the investment strategy of the Sub-Fund, due to the nature of the investment objectives of the Sub-Fund. However it cannot be excluded that among other counterparties or sectors in which such Sub-fund will invest may have bigger exposure to such Sustainability Risks than others. An ESG event or condition that, if it occurs, could potentially or actually cause a material negative impact on the value of a Sub-fund's investment. Sustainability Risks can either represent a risk of their own or have an impact on other risks and may contribute significantly to risks, such as market risks, operational risks, liquidity risks or counterparty risks. The underlying investments of the Sub-Funds which are considered, by default, as Sub-Funds falling under article 6 of the SFDR do not take into account the European Union criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities, in the context of the Taxonomy Regulation.
